

GLADES DAY SCHOOL

Glades Day School

Belle Glade, Florida

Intermediate Grade Teaching Position

Mission: We COMMIT to provide a safe, family environment and to INSPIRE all students to LEAD academically, athletically and spiritually.

General Purpose: The Lower School intermediate teacher works under the supervision of the Lower School Principal. The Lower School academic program fosters independent and collaborative learning in a flexible, self-contained homeroom requiring knowledge of all subject areas. He or she must be a collaborative member of the Intermediate Lower School Department and demonstrate a commitment to professional growth. This position demands a teacher with the developmental and pedagogical background to embrace upper elementary-aged children. We are looking for applicants that keep students at the center and have proven success implementing best practices to help all students reach their potential. The ideal candidates will thrive in mentoring children, partnering with parents, and will uphold the mission of the school with pride. Also, the candidate must exhibit a high level of commitment and a passion for the mission of Glades Day School.

Live the Characteristics of Professional Excellence:

- I strive to develop caring and supportive relationships with students, parents and community members.
- I commit myself to building the school culture through involvement.
- I vow to support collegial interdependence through the promotion of academic, athletic and spiritual growth.
- I pledge to wisely and respectfully communicate in the most effective manner and on a regular basis with my students, colleagues, parents and community members.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Minimum of a Bachelor's Degree in the related field
- Great oral and written communication skills with ability to lead students and programs
- Knowledge and/or experience in education
- Experience integrating technology into the curriculum

Teaching Responsibilities:

- Follow the employee policies and Basic Expectations of all GDS faculty
- Conduct an instructional program according to the Curriculum Guides
- Evaluate and grade students' class work and assignments
- Prepare course materials such as syllabi, homework assignments and handouts
- Keep abreast of developments in the related field by reading current literature, talking with colleagues and participating in professional development, yearly
- Plan, evaluate, and revise curriculum and course materials and methods of instruction
- Select and obtain materials and supplies such as textbooks
- Serve on academic or administrative committees that deal with institutional policies, departmental matters and academic issues
- Possess the ability to use a variety of teaching styles and methods

Other Duties as Assigned: This job description does not list all the duties of the job. Candidate may have other duties as listed on the contract. Must be available to assist in all-campus activities including, but not limited to: Fall Festival, Annual Parent/Board Meeting, Awards Banquets, Annual Spring Gala, Guidance and Student Services, Textbooks, Pre- and Post-Planning Days. Glades Day School reserves the right to revise this job description at any time.

Above all else, he/she supports and upholds the Head of School in all endeavors, and presents a united front to students, teachers, staff, Trustees, and all constituents.

Contact Person: Please email a resume and letter of interest to Cindy Baez at cbaez@gladesdayschool.com

*Please include any experience you may have in teaching Advanced Placement or elective courses, coaching, and/or sponsoring extra-curricular activities.